Dear Parents,

The month of November has 16 regular a.m. days and 13 regular p.m. days. Please read this newsletter carefully, there are numerous changes to the regular school schedule this month.

There is a minimum day on Thursday, November 1 and Friday, November 2, for Parent-Teacher conferences. If you will need childcare on either of those days please make sure that you pre-register by October 10. There is a minimum day on Friday, November 16, for Grandparent's Day. You will also need to pre-register for this day. School gets out at 12:00 on minimum days. Please remember that there is no "Choice Lunch" on minimum days. There is no school and no EDC on Monday, November 12, in observance of Veteran's Day.

Our teachers will be attending the Lutheran Educators' Conference from Monday, November 19, through Wednesday, November 21. There will be no school that entire week. Child care will be available Monday through Wednesday for the families that will need it. If there is not enough of a demand we will not be able to remain open on those days. Please make sure that you pre-register by Wednesday, October 10, if you will need care on those days. You may register for one, or all three days. The charge for all three days is $120, or $45 per day. For staffing purposes we will not be able to accommodate any families who register after the October 10 deadline. Your reservation is non-refundable. There will be no school and no EDC on Thursday, November 22 and Friday, November 23, for Thanksgiving break.

We will be offering soome childcare over Christmas break. There will be more detailed information on the December EDC order form.
